

NOMINATION FORM

The Georgia Council on Aging

2010 Vita R. Ostrander Advocacy Award

In 1992 the Georgia Council on Aging established an award to recognize an older adult who demonstrates exemplary leadership as a statewide, legislative advocate to improve the quality of life for older Georgians. The award was named for just such a Georgian and a member of the Council, Vita Ostrander. The awards committee reviews nominations. The award is not necessarily given every year. To be considered, a nominee must meet the following criteria:

- Nominee must be 60 years of age or older.
- Advocacy activities must be (or have been) uncompensated.
- Nominee must have demonstrated STATEWIDE leadership in legislative advocacy for older Georgians.
